A Welcome from Our President

It seems the summer has slipped away yet again, and we are getting into the swing of school schedules and kids' activities. And now that we've had several days to practice the morning routine, we're ready to jump back into OUR school year schedule.

The PTO is also gearing up for a great year. We've got a big jump on the auction planning, and our Entertainment Books sale is about to begin. We're in the process of getting volunteers for all of our committees, so if you are interested in being involved in your child's school this year, consider helping with the PTO. We've sent out the volunteer form for you to learn more about the committees. You can return the form with the committees marked that you are interested in. Or, contact the committee chairperson or any board member.

Some of our members have made valuable contributions since the school first opened 5 years ago. This will be my fourth year. And like many new parents, I was unsure about what I could add. What I have found is that each person adds their own talents, their own ideas, their own opinions, and their own personalities. Together, those things add up to an organization full of people who all want the same thing...to make an impact on the future of this school and to make it the best learning environment possible. Whether you can help out for 1 hour or 100 hours, we have opportunities for you to contribute the most valuable resource we can ask for... your time. For those of you who have hesitated to get involved with the PTO, make this the year you say YES!

Looking Ahead to the Auction

The Friends of Moye dinner and auction is the PTO's primary fundraiser each year. Last year, we made over $50,000 in profit that was then used to fund all of our programs and to support our school. It is obviously a very important part of our fundraising. My request is that EACH family helps with the auction in some way. It can be selling tickets or raffle tickets, setting up tables and decorating, bartending or closing the silent auctions that night, helping with the class projects and baskets, asking area businesses to donate items, transporting stuff to Katy Cavins, or selling advertising space. If you work or own your own business, please consider an ad in the event program, or donate an item or service. If everyone does a little bit, then it is not such a big task! Contact Julie Jones- Kloeckner at 628-2716, or Kathy Smitherman at 622-0151. Already wondering how you can help? Then make plans to join us at the auction procurement meeting on September 13th at 7 pm.

This year's auction planning is off and running. We are very excited about the Las Vegas night theme and we want to stress again that the auction is a fun event, where you leave the kids at home, have a date night with your husband, and get together with some friends for dinner and some shopping! What could be better than that!?

The auction is set for Saturday, November 17th from 6-10 pm. Mark your calendar now so you won't miss out. And we'll send out more info later.

Here's a new and easy way to help support your child's school! Use good-search.com as your search engine and earn money for Moye.

ATTENTION ALL CLIPPERS!!

It's time to send in all the Campbell's Labels for Education UPC codes you've clipped this summer. Check out the website at labelsforeducation.com for a complete list of eligible products including: Campbell's, Franco-American, Pepperidge Farm, Swanson, Market Day, V8, Prego lids, and Campbell's Foodservice.

Parents, don't forget to send in those box tops too. Children may bring them to class where they are collected in special containers.

Get involved early this year by volunteering at the Fall Book Fair!! The fair runs September 24-28th. Wednesday the 26th is Moye's own Donuts with Dad—or anyone else who can bring your child to school. Family Reading Night is the 27th. Volunteers are needed to help organize inventory and assist students in choosing their books. If you would like to be involved by working a shift please contact Wendy Bione at wendy-bione@hotmail.com, or 624-6997. This is Wendy's last year at Moye so she would like to help train a successor. Anyone interested please contact Wendy.
