

Paul Klee
Expressionism/Surrealism
1879-1940

Paul Klee was born in Switzerland, but lived most of his life in Munich, Germany. Rather than paint things as they look in everyday life, Klee was inspired by the world of dreams, thoughts, and imagination. Klee loved painting with color and making shapes, and some of his pictures were made up entirely of abstract designs. His paintings typically were colorful and whimsical. In addition to being a painter, Klee was a writer, printmaker and a teacher.

Paul Klee
Expressionism/Surrealism
1879-1940

Paul Klee was born in Switzerland, but lived most of his life in Munich, Germany. Rather than paint things as they look in everyday life, Klee was inspired by the world of dreams, thoughts, and imagination. Klee loved painting with color and making shapes, and some of his pictures were made up entirely of abstract designs. His paintings typically were colorful and whimsical. In addition to being a painter, Klee was a writer, printmaker and a teacher.

Paul Klee
Expressionism/Surrealism
1879-1940

Paul Klee was born in Switzerland, but lived most of his life in Munich, Germany. Rather than paint things as they look in everyday life, Klee was inspired by the world of dreams, thoughts, and imagination. Klee loved painting with color and making shapes, and some of his pictures were made up entirely of abstract designs. His paintings typically were colorful and whimsical. In addition to being a painter, Klee was a writer, printmaker and a teacher.

Paul Klee
Expressionism/Surrealism
1879-1940

Paul Klee was born in Switzerland, but lived most of his life in Munich, Germany. Rather than paint things as they look in everyday life, Klee was inspired by the world of dreams, thoughts, and imagination. Klee loved painting with color and making shapes, and some of his pictures were made up entirely of abstract designs. His paintings typically were colorful and whimsical. In addition to being a painter, Klee was a writer, printmaker and a teacher.

Paul Klee
Expressionism/Surrealism
1879-1940

Paul Klee was born in Switzerland, but lived most of his life in Munich, Germany. Rather than paint things as they look in everyday life, Klee was inspired by the world of dreams, thoughts, and imagination. Klee loved painting with color and making shapes, and some of his pictures were made up entirely of abstract designs. His paintings typically were colorful and whimsical. In addition to being a painter, Klee was a writer, printmaker and a teacher.