

Get Smart with Art
Artist: Rembrandt van Rijn 1606-1669
Print: The Night Watch

Rembrandt was a Dutch painter famous for his portraits and for his skilled mastery at depicting light and shadow in paintings. The painting we studied was the "Night Watch." Since light was very important we drew a picture of something that happens in the day and then changed it to night by adding a color wash.

Get Smart with Art
Artist: Rembrandt van Rijn 1606-1669
Print: The Night Watch

Rembrandt was a Dutch painter famous for his portraits and for his skilled mastery at depicting light and shadow in paintings. The painting we studied was the "Night Watch." Since light was very important we drew a picture of something that happens in the day and then changed it to night by adding a color wash.

Get Smart with Art
Artist: Rembrandt van Rijn 1606-1669
Print: The Night Watch

Rembrandt was a Dutch painter famous for his portraits and for his skilled mastery at depicting light and shadow in paintings. The painting we studied was the "Night Watch." Since light was very important we drew a picture of something that happens in the day and then changed it to night by adding a color wash.

Get Smart with Art
Artist: Rembrandt van Rijn 1606-1669
Print: The Night Watch

Rembrandt was a Dutch painter famous for his portraits and for his skilled mastery at depicting light and shadow in paintings. The painting we studied was the "Night Watch." Since light was very important we drew a picture of something that happens in the day and then changed it to night by adding a color wash.

Get Smart with Art
Artist: Rembrandt van Rijn 1606-1669
Print: The Night Watch

Rembrandt was a Dutch painter famous for his portraits and for his skilled mastery at depicting light and shadow in paintings. The painting we studied was the "Night Watch." Since light was very important we drew a picture of something that happens in the day and then changed it to night by adding a color wash.

Get Smart with Art

Artist: Rembrandt van Rijn 1606-1669

Print: The Night Watch

Rembrandt was a Dutch painter famous for his portraits and for his skilled mastery at depicting light and shadow in paintings. The painting we studied was the "Night Watch." Since light was very important we drew a picture of something that happens in the day and then we changed it to night by adding a color wash.